

American Learning Institute

Student Referral Form

Note: This referral program begins for new enrolled students starting January 2020 trimester. Students who have already attended or applied to ALI in the past do not qualify as referred students.

Referral Guidelines

1. To refer a potential student, please complete this form and return it to the Main Office before the first day of the referred students' first trimester.
2. You are eligible for a referral award of $75 tuition credit or $25 Amazon gift card per referral only when your referral has completed and has fully paid for one (1) trimester and is in good standing at American Learning Institute.
3. You may claim a referral award for each new student you refer to ALI.
4. In order to receive your referral award you must be a current or former student at American Learning Institute.
5. A new referred student can only designate one referring student to receive a referral award. Referred student must sign and agree that the referring student is the one who made the referral.
6. To be a true referral, the referred student's application date must be after the referring student's application date.

Referring Student Information
